The lord Itzamnaaj(?)/Kokaaj(?) Bahlam III is depicted to the left of the scene holding a flint-bladed weapon. In front of him his wife Ix K'abal Xook presents him with war gear consisting of a jaguar helmet and a flexible shield. The corresponding text states that this represents the debut or procession of a lord incorporating in his name phrase the attributes of gods, particularly the solar deity Wuk Tz'ikin Chapaht K'inich Ajaw. The signature of the sculptor at the upper left records the carving of the monument on 12 Eb 0 Pop (9.14.12.6.12, 9 February AD 724), while the text sculpted on the edge records the dedication of Structure 23—the “house” of the ruler’s wife Ix K'abal Xook—on 6 K'aban 15 Yaxk'in (9.14.14.13.17, 23 June 726). The date of the dedication of Structure 23 is confirmed on Lintel 23 (M5–N6).
